By GRACE WILEY

Simplicity in fashions is synonymous with youthfulness, so that the college girl who would be appropriately and becomingly dressed needs first, last and always to seek simplicity in the garments that go into her wardrobe. Simplicity usually implies another virtue very desirable in an energetic young woman's clothes, and that is sturdiness, a quality considered in choosing each of the models illustrated.

All of MAUPASSANT'S Matchless Tales in One Beautiful Book

See the Book before You Buy It!

$ Now Only
2<sup>98</sup>

WALTER J. BLACK, Inc.
171 Madison Avenue,
NEW YORK CITY, N.Y.

ALL of those paganly frank short stories of French life and love—222 complete titles—written by Guy de Maupassant have been collected in the covers of a single, beautiful book no more than an inch and a half thick. Into each of these tales this daring Frenchman, impelled by a fierce desire to tell the whole truth, has packed enough emotional action to serve an ordinary writer for a lifetime. No other man before or since has ever told such stories. No other man has ever given us so clear a picture of French love, hate and passion.

222 Stories Exactly

Translated from the French!

Love	Letter Found on a Corpse	Woman's Wiles
Virtue!	In His Sweetheart's Livery	Room No. Eleven
Virtue in the Ballet	Bed No. 29	A Queer Night in Paris
The Venus of Braniza	Fecundity	The Diamond Necklace
The Love of Long Ago	In the Wood	The Sequel to a Divorce
A Messalliance	Am I Insane	A Dead Woman's Secret
The Rendezvous	Words of Love	Graveyard Sirens
Under the Yoke	The Charm Dispelled	The Mad Woman
Mademoiselle	A Fashionable Woman	Forbidden Fruit
A Passion	The Diary of a Madman	The Impolite Sex
The Duel	A Way to Wealth	The Artist's Wife
The Bed	Waiter, A Bock!	In the Moonlight
Moonlight	Margot's Tapers	Was It a Dream?
The Devil	One Phase of Love	The Conservatory
Ball-of-Fat	A Strange Fancy	Love's Awakening
Magnetism	The Wedding Night	The New Sensation
A Wife's Confession	A Little Waif	Mother and Son!!!
The Story of a Farm Girl	Useless Beauty	The Farmer's Wife
		The Carter's Wench

And 167 more!

Priceless Jewels of Literature

Two hundred and twenty-two complete short stories, all Maupassant ever wrote, have been collected in this one-volume bound in gold-stamped Morocco-grained cloth and printed in large type on the finest thin paper. The translation is complete, authentic and unabridged. Every story converted word for word into English for only $2.98. The world has never before known such a bargain in entertainment. Here is a Maupassant library within the covers of a single, beautiful volume.

WALTER J. BLACK, Inc. (Dept. 188-B)
171 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.
